

WARRIOR FOUNDATION
FREEDOM STATION®

MISSION STATEMENT

Warrior Foundation Freedom Station aspires to be the leading force in assisting, honoring and supporting the military men and women who have so bravely served and sacrificed for our country. We are committed to supporting our Warriors in a variety of ways, providing quality-of-life items and numerous support services designed to assist them and their families during recovery.

Warrior Foundation
Freedom Station
Assists Four Main
Groups of Warriors:

1. The seriously ill and injured soon to be medically retired
2. Those suffering from post-traumatic stress (PTS) and/or traumatic brain injury (TBI)
3. Those undergoing physical or occupational therapy
4. Warriors who have been medically retired and remain in our community

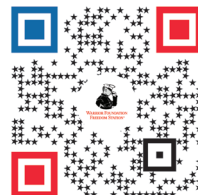

To serve this last group in particular, Warrior Foundation Freedom Station pioneered a new approach and created Freedom Station – a unique recovery transition center and housing facility that provides injured Warriors with the acclimation time, guidance and resources to successfully make the transition from military service to civilian life.

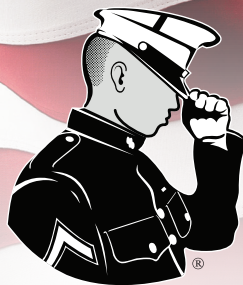

“We Vow to be a Hand-up; Not a Hand-out.”

HOPE

HEALING

HOME

Each year the Foundation assists 4,300 ill and injured Warriors by improving their “quality of life” by providing specialized items and support such as:

- Ultra-light wheelchairs + Customized medical devices
- Modified combat boots with built-in zippers to accommodate prosthetic limbs
- Tailored business attire for interviews
- Computers and iPads with specialized applications for those with post-traumatic stress (PTS) and traumatic brain injury (TBI)

The Foundation’s success is measured by the Warriors’ ability to demonstrate a successful transition from military to civilian life. These metrics include:

- Employment
- Enrollment in higher education
- Enrollment in vocational/trade school
- Financial independence
- Establish meaningful relationships
- Maintain overall health
- Purchase a home

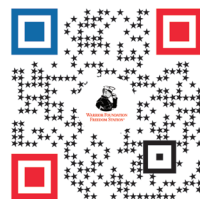

During this transition, Warriors face heightened risks of homelessness, unemployment, and emotional distress. Since the Freedom Stations opened, the Foundation has:

- Housed 120 active-duty Warriors
- Provided a place for healing, personal growth, and preparation for new opportunities awaiting in civilian life
- Equipped all charming cottages and apartments with furnishings and basic household necessities
- Helped shift Warriors from a “barracks mentality” to independent living
